

Aboriginal Education – Learning from Home Activity 1

Id like to start by acknowledging the Awabakal People, the traditional custodians of the land on which Senior School learns. I acknowledge their continued connection to land, water and earth.

Sing-a-long – have a go at singing heads, shoulders, knees and toes in Awabakal language!

Heads, Shoulders, Knees and Toes in Awabakal Language

Walang, mirang, waruumbang, dhina

Heads, shoulders, knees, toes

Waruumbang, dhina

Knees, toes

Waruumbang, dhina

Knees, toes

Walang, mirang, waruumbang, dhina

Heads, shoulders, knees, toes

We all clap madara together!

We all clap hands together!

Ngayikang, ngurayiyang, karraka, nukuru

Eyes, ears, mouth, nose

Karraka, nukuru

Mouth, nose

Karraka, nukuru

Mouth, nose

Ngayikang, ngurayiyang, karraka, nukuru

Eyes, ears, mouth, nose

We all clap madara together!

We all clap hands together!

Written By: Stacey Gibson 2019