Comment: Write or draw examples of natural things found and matched (for example: a flower/yellow). Did you enjoy the activity? (yes/no)
