

Aboriginal Education – Learning from Home Activity 5

Id like to start by acknowledging the Awabakal People, the traditional custodians of the land on which Senior School learns. I acknowledge their continued connection to land, water and earth.

Connecting to Country

Research places that are special or significant to you; where you were born, places you visit, holiday, have relatives.

Research which country these places are from and create a collage.