

Aboriginal Education – Learning from Home Activity 9

Id like to start by acknowledging the Awabakal People, the traditional custodians of the land on which Senior School learns. I acknowledge their continued connection to land, water and earth.

Tiddalick the Frog

Tiddalick is a dreaming story from the Awabakal people. Watch the video on the website or Facebook and complete the below activity, sequence the story with the correct visuals.

Tiddalick the Frog

1. There was a frog named Tiddalick
2. One day we awoke with a great thirst.
3. He began drinking all the water.
4. The other animals began to die of thirst
5. The made Tiddalick laugh, causing the great flood.
6. The water forged the river Coquun
7. Tiddalick was turned to stone.
